THE OAK AND THE IVY.

BY HYACINTHE.

In the woods a modest ivy dwelt,
Apart and hid from view;
But near by, standing in her sight,
A stately oak tree grew.

The zephyrs blowing through the leaves,
They speak so soft, so dear;
The ivy raised her gentle head,
The loving words to hear.

But shy and blushing as the morn,
At what the oak had said;
Though listening longingly for more,
Again she bows her head.

The oak tree opens wide his arms,
He lifts the little face,

PERSONAL.

Capt. Sam. K. Cox returned Sunday from the Louisville races.

Joe Foreman, of Calhoun, is visiting his relatives here.

Miss Lizzie Morton left Friday for a short visit to her home in Paradise.

Dr. H. C. Bruce, of South Carrollton, is attending Circuit Court this week.

Capt. I. H. Axton, of Owensboro, revenue storekeeper, is in town visiting relatives.

John T. Martin, Esq., of Rosine, our genial agent and correspondent, gave us a call last Saturday.

Peter Haffy, of Fordville, is in attendance at our court this week. Peter is a wholesome fellow.

T. H. Hudson, of Buford, has just returned from a two month's trip to Illinois. Mr. Hudson called at this office last Friday.

Capt. W. H. Sandusky, the genial and affable proprietor of the Sandusky House, Owensboro Junction, was in town Monday.

Judge James Stuart, J. Allen Dean, Maj. Joe Hayercraft and W. T. Ellis, of Owensboro, are in attendance at Circuit Court this week.

Capt. Sam. M. Gaines, of Hopkinsville, candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is in town, the guest of the Hartford House.

Prof. Wayland Alexander has rented the cottage on Washington street belonging to W. C. Morton and has moved his family therein.

J. C. Jones, the newly elected police judge of Rockport, called on us Monday and renewed his subscription and supplied himself with blanks.

Claude J. Yager, editor of the Litchfield Suburban, passed through town Sunday on his way home from a short visit to his parents in Owensboro.

We had the pleasure of meeting that veteran of the quill, Len G. Faxon, editor of the Paducah News at the Press Association at Hopkinsville last week.

Our old friend, Peter Lindley, of Calhoun, was in attendance at our Circuit Court last Monday. We had the pleasure of a call from him while in town.

The many friends of Judge J. C. Lawrence will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the severe illness by which he has been confined to his room for some time.

Dr. J. P. Heavrin, formerly of this county, but now of Curdsville, Daviess county, is visiting relatives here.

We had the pleasure of a call from him while here, and entering his name on our honor roll.

While visiting the thriving little city of Madisonville last week we had the pleasure of meeting our young friend, and former attache of this office, John C. Thomson, who extended to us all the courtesies of his generous nature.

We are under special obligations to Chas. M. Meacham and W. A. Wilgus, publishers and proprietors of the South Kentucky, for courtesies extended to us while in their pleasant and prosperous little city. May they live long and "brother."

Sylvester B. Raley, representing the Brown County Banner, Brownwood, Texas, is spending a few weeks with his parents and friends in Rosine, this county. We had the pleasure of a call from him last Saturday evening.

Mr. Raley was formerly of this county, but has been a citizen of Texas since 1878.

During our sojourn in Hopkinsville, attending the Western Kentucky Press Association last week, it was our happy fortune to be assigned a home at the hospitable residence of Mr. Robert Gwynn. Besides all the attention that could seemingly be given a guest by the venerable mother, Misses Alice Gwynn and Ida Greenwood, sister and niece of Mr. Gwynn, contributed largely to our entertainment. The kindness shown us by the young ladies is only excelled by their sweetness of song and brightness of intellect.

—For fruit cans, go to Thomas Bros.

—Coffee 13 cents, at L. H. Eldson's.

—The obituary of Mrs. Eliza N. Harden will appear in next issue.

—For furniture, go to L. H. Eldson's, she has just received a new supply.

—329 spavins on horses, all cured by Kendall's Spavin Cure. Read their advertisement.

—W. T. & F. O. Austin, Beaver Dam, will sell you groceries, notions, salt and lime cheap for cash.

—Just received, a car load of salt and lime. W. T. & F. O. Austin, Beaver Dam, Ky.

—Just received, a fresh supply of coffee, cans, etc., at G. J. Bean & Son's. Orders filled with promptness and dispatch.

—The best place to buy groceries and furniture is at L. H. Eldson's. You will be treated right and get the worth of your money.

—G. J. Bean is sole agent of this county for the Richmond Rye Reaper. Call and examine this machine before purchasing elsewhere.

—Married—At the residence of M. V. Duke, Sunday, May 22, 1881, by Rev. J. S. McDaniel, Dr. James R. Wells and Miss Bettie C. Davis of Daviess county.

—Don't forget that Lou Hill keeps the best saloon in town. All of the best brands of whisky, wine and beer kept on hand.

—Every farmer should read the article on the first page of this issue from V. M. Metcalf, of Hopkinsville, on the culture of tobacco.

—Miss Rebecca Scott, of the vicinity of Cool Springs, died very suddenly on the 14th inst. The cause of her death is supposed to have been heart disease.

—We have much pleasure in recommending Therman to our readers, as an absolute cure for Malaria. The manufacturer's name alone is a guarantee of its merit. It sells at 25 cents per box. For particulars see Advt.

—Wanted—A purchaser of a stock of dry goods and clothing in Hartford, well selected, at reasonable rates for cash. Stock, fixtures and stand. Call on Z. A. Rosenberg.

—Any and all kinds of blacksmithing, painting, repainting, buggies, buggy tops, buggy trimmings and wagon work, cheap as the cheapest, quality of work considered. D. F. TRACY.

—Dyspepsia and indigestion are cured by using Ball's Digestive Salt. 25 cents will get a package or bottle from your druggist or grocer. See advertisement.

—We were the recipient last Saturday of a bouquet of beautiful and fragrant flowers, emblematic of the "cross." Its beauty and brightness are only excelled by the high appreciation placed upon it by the recipient. Accept thanks.

—The class in elocution, conducted by Miss Lizzie Box, will give an exhibition at the College on Friday night, June 3, 1881. They will render the popular drama, "Clouds." All should attend this entertainment.

—We are requested to say that the place for holding the picnic next Saturday has been changed from Stevens Landing to Ward's Ferry. Fishing, hunting and speaking will be the programme. Every body is invited to come and bring baskets of provisions. A good time is anticipated.

—We advise the readers of this paper in our town and the surrounding country to purchase their, or their son's, clothes from the most enterprising firm in Louisville—J. Winter & Co., corner of Third and Market streets. You will just be pleased if you deal with them.

—Married—In Elkton, Tuesday morning, May 17, 1881, Ed. H. Stapp, of Corydon, and Miss Nannie Petree, of Elkton. Attendants—Henry H. King, of Corydon, and Miss Mattie Petree, of Elkton. The contracting parties left immediately after the ceremony for the home of the groom in Corydon.

—Dr. J. Kendall & Co., Gents: Please find enclosed 25 cents for revised edition of your horse book. I have tried your Kendall's Spavin Cure for curb, and it has done all you claim for it. By using one-half bottle it entirely cured the lameness and removed the bump.

—Yours truly, FRANK STANLEY.

—Capt. Wm. Ashby, of Jamesport, Mo., sole agent of the self-curing, non-explosive safety lamp, for the State of Kentucky, called on us last week. Capt. Ashby sold the right of this county sometime ago, and every lamp sold and delivered so far as we have been able to learn, gives entire satisfaction. We have ordered a set for our office. He has a large number of counties yet unsold. Persons wishing to purchase territory or county rights, address Capt. Wm. Ashby, agent, Hartford, Ky.

—While in Madisonville last week we were the guest of the Belmont House. This is a new hotel, and opened for the reception of guests about the first of January. The building is a very ingenious one. It is a two-story brick, of equal dimensions, with dining-room in center which is lighted by day with sky-light representing all the colors of the rainbow, and by night by gas. It is furnished equal to any hotel in the State, and the fare is not surpassed anywhere. Messrs. Morton & Miles are the owners and proprietors and Mr. Eugene Speed is the gentlemanly clerk.

—While visiting the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum, at Hopkinsville, last week, we were informed by Dr. Rodman that there are at present 460 inmates—that about 45 per cent. of the patients are restored and sent home—that the first inmate received into the Asylum was Ephraim Lane, of Green county, Oct. 5, 1854. The Dr. also stated that the difference between the amount allowed by the State for the keeping of each inmate and the actual amount it had cost had created a fund of $22,000, which amount he had paid into the State treasury and had receipt for same. This shows that the Asylum is run on an economical basis, which speaks very high for Dr. Rodman's management.

—Barrel of fresh pickles, at Thomas Brothers'.

—Use Morton's Heel Braces, the best in use.

—Seven pounds of Rio Coffee for $1, at Thomas Brothers'.

—Come and see some of L. H. Eldson's 18 cent coffee.

—Call on your merchants for Morton's Heel Braces.

—Dr. Mott's Liver Pills are the best cathartic regulators.

—Just received 10 barrels of that famous silver leaf patent process flour, at L. H. Eldson's.

—We thought we were too late until we saw the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure.

—Born, to the wife of Wm. H. Martin, of Fordville, on Tuesday, the 17th inst., a son, Weight, 13 pounds.

—Durno's Catarrh Snuff cures catarrh and all affections of the mucous membrane.

—Wm. Coombs, living four miles east of Hartford, died Tuesday of last week, of a long and painful chronic illness.

—A little son of George Hines, and grandson of Thos. H. Hines, died last Friday night after an illness of several days.

—W. H. Rowe, of Russellville, representing the Barclay & Ryan Tanning Co., was in town last Monday and gave us a call.

—Measles still continues to get in its work in the upper portion of the county. Several very severe and one dangerous case is reported.

—The dwelling and smoke-house of J. T. White, who lives near Fordville, in this county, were destroyed by fire last week. Almost all the contents of the dwelling were saved.

—The medicines of DUNN & CO. are unexcelled for elegance, purity, and reliability. Their Seditive Seditive Powders, are as pleasant as Lemonade. Their Soft Capsules are world famous. See Advt.

—Mr. F. W. Pirtle, near town, has just returned from New Orleans where he has been with a flat-boat loaded with staves. He reports a pleasant and profitable trip.

—Mrs. Taylor, wife of Rev. J. W. Taylor, of Rosine, died last Thursday evening after quite a brief illness. Her remains were interred in the graveyard at Salem church.

—When certain powers are claimed for an article, and everybody testifies that it does more than is claimed for it, to gain say its worth is useless. This is the substance of the St. Jacobs Oil record.—South Bend Evening Register.

—Mr. E. R. Ashby, of Centertown, has accepted the agency of this State for the Non-Explosive Self-Extinguishing Safety Lamp. He will start on a tour in a few days for unsold territory.

—Farmers from all portions of the county report their corn as having come up very badly. The cause is thought to be a deficiency in the germinating power of the seed and the extremely unfavorable weather.

—We desire to return our thanks to Mr. Louis Guenther, of the Bakery, for a beautiful and delicious treat of ice cream sent to this office one evening last week. Our strongest point is our weakness for ice cream, and Mr. Guenther took just the step to gratify that weakness. Call on him when you want ice cream.

—Mrs. Fields, wife of B. C. Fields, of McHenry, died very suddenly Saturday morning of hemorrhage of the lungs. Mrs. Fields was seemingly in good health up to the time of her illness, and her sudden and unexpected demise has cast a gloom over the entire community in which she lived.

—The next Quarterly Conference for the Hartford Circuit, Methodist Episcopal Church South, will be held at Goshen church, Saturday and Sunday, June 4th and 5th, 1881. The stewards should, and no doubt will, discharge their duties with credit to themselves and profit to their pastor.

—There will be a picnic at Rockport next Saturday under the supervision of Dr. S. A. Jackson, P. W. James, Capt. Sandusky and John Doherty. Messrs. J. L. Daniel and M. L. Ham are proprietors. A nice time is assured to all who may attend. Our candidates for the Senate ought to, and no doubt will, be there.

—Mr. A. Porter Hudson, of this place, (Government Storekeeper at Hines' Distillery, was stricken with paralysis on Monday, May 16th, 1881. He has been brought home where every care and treatment for his recovery will be had. At this writing he is improving, and his friends think that he is in a fair way to recover.

—Upon being spoken to concerning St. Jacobs Oil, our fellow townsman, Mr. Theodore Wakeley, said: "I had been suffering with rheumatism and obtained the greatest relief from the use of St. Jacobs Oil. It has also been used in my family for sometime, and has never been found to fail in giving prompt relief.—Battle Creek (Mich.) Daily Journal.

—We may live without poetry, and live without art.

—We may live without conscience, and live without heart.

—We may live without friends, and live without looks.

—We may live without God, and live without cooks.

—But where is the man, woman, or child who can live without the use of Crooke's celebrated "Never Fail?"

—Rev. E. H. Maddox held another outdoor meeting last Sabbath evening just in front of the post office. Some 40 or 50 were in attendance. He gave a very earnest, impressive talk, during which he took to task professed Christians who fail to walk circumspectly before God. Members of the various churches were scarce, and a large number of those present belong to the unregenerate class. Why do Christians not attend? These meetings are calculated to do good if the united influence of the Christians of this community were given to them. Meeting again next Sabbath evening at 3 o'clock. Let us all go and see what good things this zealous young minister will have in store for us.

—Mr. W. T. McSherry died of consumption a few miles north of this place on the 9th inst.

—Read the announcement in another column of the Normal School of Prof. Alexander and Bennett.

—A synopsis of the programme of the closing examination of Hartford College appears in another column.

—We called at Anderson's Bazaar yesterday for an advertisement, but they were too busy to give us any.

—In the article in last week's issue, under the title of "Free Schools and Taxation," the words "worse reasonable" should have read "more reasonable."

—A grand barbecue under the management of J. B. Gross and Jack Haycraft will be given by J. L. Ralph's store, near Panther creek bridge, on Saturday, June 4, 1881. For further particulars see posters.

—The People's Tobacco Warehouse, 344 Main street, Louisville, still hold out the best inducements to farmers and shippers of tobacco. Try this house when you have tobacco to dispose of.

—The Standiford Hotel, Louisville, Ky., had an enormous run of custom during the races of last week. The reason for it is that the Standiford already has a reputation as being the best and most conveniently located hotel in the city.

—All those indebted to the estate of Jacob B. Stewart, deceased, are informed that immediate payment is required. By heeding this notice you can save costs.

—J. W. HOCKER, Admr. Cromwell, May 24, 1881.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanse the skin of its yellowish, cure bilious headache, and cause new life in the blood. Druggists have it, both dry and liquid.—Zion's Herald.

Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters

Is the oldest and best remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, indigestion, all disorders of the stomach, and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, kidneys, liver, skin, etc.

Died.

Three miles southeast of Fordville, Ohio county, Ky., at 4:30 a. m., Wednesday, May 18, 1881, of brain fever, Annie, infant daughter of John J. and Polly Smith, aged 18 months and 2 days. In the evening the remains were laid in the graveyard of its grandfather, Henry Smith.

FORMS.

Lightning Flashes.

During the storm last Monday evening, John Henry, a son of George Allen, and grandson of Frank Allen, was killed by lightning. It seems that the deceased was working in a corn field and when the rain storm came up he went to a tree for shelter which was struck by lightning, killing him instantly.

Normal School.

We will open a Normal School in Hartford, Ky., on the 1st Monday in July, to continue four weeks, for the benefit of those wishing to prepare themselves for teaching. The most important branches usually taught in our common schools will be rigidly discussed and explained to the members.

It will be our earnest desire during the term to assist the students to master the following branches: Elementary Algebra, Higher Arithmetic, English Grammar and Geography, together with the best modes of conducting a school so as to secure the highest mental training and proficiency among pupils.

This is a splendid opportunity for those teachers wishing to prepare themselves for thorough service in the school room. Those wishing to attend will please inform us at as early a date as possible. Tuition $5.

Marriage Licenses.

The unprecedented warm weather exerts a very depressing influence on the matrimonial aspirations of our marriageable population. Only three licenses have been granted in the past two weeks. The names are:

J. C. Loney and Maggie S. Fulkerson.

R. H. Taylor and Annie L. Johnson.

Dr. J. R. Wells and Bettie C. Davis.

LATER.

Lee Medall and Mary Whittaker.

J. M. Mitchell and Mrs. Mary E. Bishop.

Beliegent Brethren.

The Baptist church at Pleasant Valley, one of the churches composing the Blackford Association, and situated just across the Ohio county line, in Breckinridge county, composed of members residing in Ohio and Breckinridge counties, was nearly dissolved on Saturday, May 14th. But two male members remained with the church. The clerk, John R. Beatty, and Wm. A. Myers, the latter being absent at that time. The trouble arose from the exclusion of a member on Saturday, April 16th. The church would have not dissolved had not a visiting minister agreed to hold service without compromise at their stated meetings until the Association, which meets on Friday preceding the fifth Sunday in July, 1881. The case is threatened to be carried to the Breckinridge Circuit Court.

Hartford Water Mills to the Front.

We take pleasure in announcing to our friends and patrons that we have refitted our carding machinery, and are now ready to do their work promptly and in good order, for which we will charge 7 cents per pound or one-fifth for toll. No extra charge for mixing.

You are required to furnish one pound of grease for eight pounds of wool, or we can furnish same at a very small additional cost.

Our corn and wheat mills are in perfect order, and can do your grinding punctually, every day in the week except Saturday and Sunday, for which we charge one-eighth toll, for both corn and wheat.

We have a full assortment of Cate's goods, such as jeans, flannel, linen, balmoral skirts, blankets and yarns, which we will sell cheap for cash or in exchange for wool.

Highest market price paid for wool, corn or wheat.

We are thankful for past patronage and hope to merit a continuance of same.

WESTERN KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION AT HOPKINSVILLE.

Our Visit to that Flourishing Little City.

The first regular meeting of the Western Kentucky Press Association since its organization at Madisonville last January, was held in the city of Hopkinsville on Wednesday and Thursday, May 18th and 19th, 1881. This Association is composed of the Fourth Appellate District, embracing twenty-nine counties. Of these counties the following papers were represented: Paducah News, Len G. Faxon; Paducah Enterprise, John B. Gaines; Henderson Register, L. W. Coleman; Muhlenberg Echo, Urey Woodson; Elkton Register, Frank Bristow; Litchfield Suburban, J. T. Gosnell; Russellville Herald-Enterprise, C. J. Norwood; Kuttawa Beacon, A. J. Blake; Crittenden Press, R. C. Walker; South Kentucky, Chas. M. Meacham and W. A. Wilgus; Hartford Herald, Lycurgus Barrett. Capt. Sam. M. Gaines, former editor of the New Era, and Chas. E. Robert, of the Nashville Sunday Courier, were made honorary members of the Association.

The Association convened Wednesday afternoon in the office of the South Kentucky, and after a short session, by invitation of President Rust, visited Bethel Female College. Here we were met by President Rust, who conducted us to the chapel, where we were entertained for an hour or more by the exercises of the school. The first recitation was Miss Westfall's class in mental arithmetic, which was very remarkable—the pupils giving a correct and immediate answer to any problem given them. The next was the declamation of "The Ride of Jennie McNeal," by Miss Lillie Woodbridge, which was rendered in a modest and graceful manner, at the same time displaying great power as an elocutionist. This was followed by a recitation of "The Wounded Soldier," by Miss Annie Waller. This recitation brought tears to the eyes of several members of the press. The grace, dignity and ease exhibited in the rendition of this poem by Miss Waller is scarcely equalled in Kentucky. By request Miss Westfall read "Father Phil's Collection," which produced great laughter and applause. The exercises closed by the Calisthenics drill by Miss Lillie Waller's class, which was highly enjoyed by the craft.

On Thursday morning the Association visited the public school. Here we were conducted through all the departments by Prof. Dietrich and listened to the various recitations. This school has 480 pupils, and all of the departments are taught by ladies—Prof. Dietrich being the only male teacher connected with the school. We would like to speak much of this school and the manner in which it is conducted, but space will not permit.

At noon the members of the press were invited by Dr. James Rodman to dine at the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum. The members repaired to the office of the New Era and were driven to the asylum building, where Dr. Rodman received us with that welcome peculiar to a true Kentucky gentleman. At 1 o'clock we were ushered into the dining-room, where we stood around a table richly laden with edibles, which showed that a genius of the culinary art presided. Mrs. Dr. Rodman, our hostess, was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Sutherland, and nieces, Misses Lizzie and Carrie Rodman, of Frankfort. After dinner we were conducted through the asylum, where we found every thing conducted in a gratifying manner. We were shown through the whole buildings and grounds, and it was a unanimous verdict of the members that the asylum is ably and admirably conducted by Dr. Rodman. The asylum grounds present an inviting scene at this season of the year. At 4:30 o'clock we returned to the city, where a short session was held in the Knights of Pythias Hall, after which the meeting adjourned.

A hop was given at the court hall Thursday night, where a large number of the beauty and fashion of the city attended. Here Tephrosche was the goddess most worshipped, and

"Light feet tripped swiftly to the vaulted throng, While all their air with mirth and music rang."

We had heard much of Hopkinsville—of the hospitality of its citizens—of the beauty and intellect of its ladies and the gallantry and courtesy of its young gentlemen, but never had the pleasure of a realization of it before.

A Heart-Rendering Scene.

One of the most heart-rendering scenes ever witnessed in that vicinity occurred near Cromwell, this county, last Friday evening. Richard, a son of Joseph Taylor, a young man just about grown, who had been plowing corn, was returning home from his

IN MEMORIAM.
Mrs. Mattie A. Ford.
Mrs. Ford was born at the residence of her grandfather, Joseph H. Cooper, near Rockvale post-office, Breckinridge county, Ky., October 23, 1860, and was the oldest daughter of Elijah H. and Nancy N. Cooper. She joined the Baptist church during a protracted meeting at Mt. Pleasant, Ohio county, in November, 1877. She was a strict member and was closely attached to the interest and welfare of the church of which she was a member. On the 18th of November, 1878, she was married to Thomas S. Ford, oldest son of Harvey T. Ford, she being at that time only nineteen years and two months old. She was confined to her bed since March 1, 1880, and during her long protracted illness she was never known to murmur or complain. Everything that could be done by her fond husband, parents and friends. Just before she died she gave instructions about her burial and chose a hymn to be sung at the funeral. She died of consumption, at the residence of her father, two miles northeast of Fordsville, at 4 o'clock p. m., Sunday, May 8, 1881, aged twenty years, six months and fifteen days. On the morning of the 9th the funeral service was held at her father's by the Rev. Charles B. Phillips from the text: "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." (Philippians, 1st chapter, 21 verse.) In the evening the remains were taken to the graveyard on the farm of John Miles and interred near the grave of her infant, Nannie, born and died March 2, 1880. The following hymn was selected by her for the funeral service:
I will sing you a song of that beautiful land,
The far away home of the soul,
Where no storms ever beat on the glittering strand,
While the years of eternity roll.
Oh, that home of the soul in my visions and dreams,
Its bright, Jasper walls I can see,
Thou I fancy but thin thy veil intervenes
Between the fair city and me.
That unchangeable home is for you and for me,
Where Jesus of Nazareth stands;
The King of all kingdoms forever is He,
And He holds our crowns in His hands.
Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain;
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again.
The parents of the deceased wish their many friends living in Ohio and Breckinridge counties to accept their grateful thanks for their friendly aid and kindness during the long protracted illness of twenty-six months of the deceased and her sister, Miss Emma, who preceded her on March 23, 1880.
FORDS.
Hartford College.
Preparations are now actively making for the commencement exercises of this flourishing institution, which will begin June 6th.
For so young a school its success is unprecedented. About this time last year the handsome two-story brick school building, which is an ornament, and should be the pride of Hartford, was completed, and on the first Monday in September last the doors were first thrown open to pupils. Prof. Wayland Alexander went to Hartford a comparative stranger, but his fame as a teacher and organizer of schools had preceded him, and from the first his school has been a success. It is hardly worth while for the Echo to mention Prof. Alexander's past career, his great success in establishing a school at South Carrollton being fresh in the memory of a majority of our readers, but we may say that he is a man of that personal magnetism that inspires his friends and supporters among any people; his selection of teachers wise and judicious.
On a recent visit to Hartford the writer was shown through the College building. In architecture and finish it could not be improved upon, containing seven large, airy rooms, modern styled school furniture. From belfry to foundation it is complete, and is kept in perfect order. The pupils being under thorough and systematic discipline, affairs in and about the building during school hours go on like clockwork.
Of the faculty, we have not the space to say what we should in justice to all. Prof. Alexander teaches the English branches and mental philosophy; Amos Bennett, Jr., A. M., mathematics and political economy; James S. Glenn, A. B., natural sciences, Latin and Greek; Prof. James W. Bishop, penmanship and book-keeping; Miss Kate Hendrick, intermediate department; Miss Lizzie Morton, primary department; Miss Grace Thompson, vocal and instrumental music; Miss Lizzie J. Box, art department. To say that this faculty second to none in western Kentucky is the least that we can say of it.
The average attendance at this school for the first ten months will be two hundred. Of these many are from Muhlenburg, McLean, Davies, Hancock, Breckinridge and other counties, and the presence of these outsiders makes Hartford a lively town, and growing in population. Not a vacant house can be had in the place and there is an ever increasing demand for residences. With these indications of prosperity it is natural to suppose that the citizens of the place are united in their enthusiastic support of the school. With its cultivated society, healthful and accessible location and superior natural advantages, there is no reason why Hartford should not become the educational center of the Green river country, which it doubtless will be at no distant day.—Echo.
"I Don't Want that Stuff."
Is that a lady of Boston said to her husband when he brought home some medicine to cure her of sick headache and neuralgia which had made her miserable for fourteen years. At the first attack thereafter it was administered to her with such good results that she continued its use until cured, and made so enthusiastic in its praise that she induced twenty-two of the best families in her circle to adopt its their regular family medicine. That "stuff" is Hop Bitters.—Standard.
